MESSAGE FROM THE MD

It is such a privilege to share some insightful information about TBN in Africa and its developments thus far. It has been seven months since we’ve been back on air, and we are celebrating God’s favour every day. As we have embarked on a journey as a new TBN in Africa, it is with joy that we thank our viewers and partners for the unwavering support through prayers, sharing of testimonies and financial support. Our viewers and partners make it possible for us to sustain this God-given assignment of bringing salt and light to our beautiful continent. I want to thank you for that.

A NEW PARTNERSHIP

TBN in Africa and The Global Business Roundtable (GBR) has officially signed an agreement that sees TBN in Africa as the main Christian Broadcasting Partner. TBN and GBR share the same values of reaching Africa and the rest of the world with the works of God. GBR was established on 21 August 2009 and started as a discussion forum as well as a support, networking and prayer group for people in business and various intellectual professions. GBR is a networking organization with a global member pool that focuses on the complete development of a person in line with God’s plan for His Kingdom. One of the challenges facing modern business and private sectors globally is the fact that the current financial and economic systems and organizations, unless inspired by God and led by the Holy Spirit, will not prevail in solving the deepening economic problems of the world. “We believe God will use organisations like the Global Business Roundtable to ensure that His people take over and control the economies of the world.”

Convener, Mr Sipho Mseleku

1 Peter 2:2 (AMPC)

"Like newborn babies you should crave (thirst for; earnestly desire) the pure (unadulterated) spiritual milk: that by it you may be nurtured and grow unto [completed] salvation".

Salvation continues long after our justification. By declaring that Jesus is our Lord and Saviour, we become righteous in the Father’s eyes – He no longer sees the sinner, He sees us as His sons and daughters; children of the most High God...

But does it stop there? Is justification enough? Justification is enough to enter heaven at the end of our lives, yes! – But it is not enough to please God.

1 Peter 2:2 says: "we should thirst, crave and desire God in order to complete our salvation." Going to heaven one day, is only the first part of our Salvation. Sanctification is the natural next step...

What does “Sanctification” mean? It means we have to walk in the way God instructs us through His Holy Word. After saving us from hell and everlasting damnation, He continues saving us from this world and its broken ways.

Look at 1 Peter 2:2 again: “… you should crave... the pure (unadulterated) spiritual milk... [in other words the Bible],... that by it you may be nurtured and grow unto [COMPLETED] salvation”.

His Word saves us daily. This world with its wars, famine, death and sadness, can seem like a taste of hell some days, but God says I will save you daily! I will love you and look after you even when you “pass through the valley of the shadow of death”.

Psalm 23:3-4 (AMPC)

“He refreshes and restores my life (my self); He leads me in the paths of righteousness [uprightness and right standing with Him - not for my earning it, but] for His name’s sake.

“Yes, though I walk through the [deep, sunless] valley of the shadow of death, I will fear or dread no evil for You are with me: Your rod [to protect] and Your staff [to guide], they comfort me.”

In order to be saved in this present day in this present moment we have to walk in His way. There is only one way between Calvary and Glory and it is forward. It is advancement with God. It is cooperation with Him in the Spirit. We have to seek the vision that God has for our lives, because if we live on the same plane day after day, our vision becomes stale; the principles we stand for lose their “realness”. We must be like those who are catching the vision of the Great Teacher Jesus – every day of our lives. The renewal of the mind is a daily necessity not a monthly or yearly event.

Ephesians 4:23 (AMPC) says: “And be constantly renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude].”

We have to resist every unrighteous passion that has the potential to stand between us, and the saving grace of God.

We must have a clear revelation that God wants to give us a seat in heavenly places. In my experience I have come to the conclusion that it is often the most trying times that are the most beneficial to our Christian growth – even Moses faced many seemingly impossible tasks, but God never let him down... not even when he failed to uphold His walk of sanctification.

God is a “Just God", but He is also a God of mercy and forgiveness. Expect to be reconstructed in the hard times, in the times when you think there is no hope. Know that, that will be the time when God will show you, who you are in and through Christ. When the trial is so severe, when you think that no one is being tried as much as you; when life gets so hard that you cannot sleep and you don’t know what the next move will be; “count it all joy” says James 1:2.

When you no longer have the answers... look to God, for He has been waiting for your call.

We thank God for our justification through the righteousness of His Son, we renew our minds daily in our walk of sanctification through His wisdom, and we look forward with great joy to the last and final stretch of our salvation walk - when one day our justification and our sanctification results in the glorification of our inner beings, in the presence of His perfect Love and Holiness.

PARTNER WITH US

Our heart is to produce authentic, credible Christian content for our viewers in Africa to enjoy - content that is not only relevant but also pure.

If God has placed it in your heart to support our vision, please Partner with us either through regular prayer for our team and the channel, or through a financial contribution.

We believe that this channel will only be blessed if we operate with a pure heart, free from any form of manipulation. Therefore, if you are considering to become a regular-giving partner, please pray about this first, as the Word teaches us that we need to follow the guidance of the Holy Spirit and make wise decisions.

All donations received through partnership are sowed back into the channel, as we want to place the Word of God and the Holy Spirit in as many houses in Africa as possible.

Through this we are able to impact and transform people’s lives, and in turn impact those around them.

NOW THAT WE ARE BACK

One of the most asked questions that we have received over the past few months, is whether TBN in Africa is the same TBN that has been on air for more than 40 years?

Unlike before, TBN now solely owns and operates the network in Africa without any external entity involved. The TBN in Africa channel is entirely independent of all ministries and Christian organisations with regards to ownership of the Network. However, we work in close relationship with most South African and African ministries across many denominations, to enable the development of new variety Christian content for our viewers to enjoy.

Previously TBN was broadcast on channel 341, but the new TBN in Africa is broadcast on channel 343.

Further to this, it’s important to note that our banking details have also changed with the re-launch of TBN in Africa.

If you have previously been a TBN partner and contributed financially to the channel over the past years, we would like to thank you for your kind support in order for us to spread the Gospel of Christ to the nations.

If you would like to continue supporting TBN in Africa, please be sure to change your debit order to reflect our new banking details:

WE HONOUR JAN CROUCH’S MEMORY AND THE LEGACY BY CARRYING ON THE WORK SHE LOVED

By Matthew Crouch, Chairman of Trinity Broadcasting International

As you may know, my mom, Jan Crouch, transitioned from this world to the next back on May 31. She stepped into the presence of Jesus, into her heavenly reward, and back to the side of my dad and her husband, Paul. Those who battle for the Kingdom of God knew her as a fighter, someone who didn’t give up, someone who fought relentlessly to get the Gospel around the world. Viewers of the Trinity Broadcasting Network knew her as someone who partnered with my dad in the launch and expansion of TBN and as someone who came into their homes for over 40 years. To thousands of orphans around the world, and those orphaned in spirit, she was “Momma Jan,” quick with a smile, a gift, and a word of encouragement.

To a select few, she was not a television figure – but a sister, wife, mom, or grandma – an integral part of a family. My mom loved many things, but most of all she loved Jesus and now sees Him face-to-face. Mom and Dad together again - in the arms of Jesus. Now, Laurie and I endeavour to honour their memories and their legacy by carrying on - extending and expanding the ministry outreaches into which they poured their lives and hearts. That means reaching unreached generations and language groups through the power of Christian media.

Our prayer is that you will honour my parents’ legacy by walking alongside TBN as the work continues.

THE NEXT LEVEL OF PROGRAMMING

At TBN in Africa we are serious about the quality of our Programming – both the quality of the Word that is preached and the broadcast quality. Therefore, in August we invited all our contracted Programmers with their technical teams, to be part of our valuable information-sharing session.

At this meeting Leon Schoeman, the channel director of TBN UK as well as steward over the African office, shared the heart and vision of TBN international. “Part of TBN’s vision is to ensure that no one on our channel will merchandise the anointing of God,” said Leon.

Further to this, Leon shared his passion and determination to ensure that TBN in Africa broadcasts only the pure, unadulterated Word of God. He went on saying that the only way in which TBN will accomplish this, is through strong relationships with our Programmers, and through each ministry holding themselves and each other responsible and accountable for the Word that is preached from their pulpits.

Other topics covered on this day included technical information to equip the ministries to improve their production quality, a guest speaker shared insights into Branding and Marketing more effectively, and much more. The positive feedback received after the event indicated that TBN in Africa together with our Programmers share the vision of bringing good quality, pure Christian content to Africa.
